The 2010 Stage Schedule

... and the men and women are MORE than merely players at the Bristol Renaissance Faire. Many of the professional performers featured at Bristol routinely travel the globe, some up to 11 months a year, appearing in a variety of prestigious venues. These highly sought after artists frequently must be booked up to 3 years in advance of an appearance. Luckily, the Bristol Renaissance Faire attracts the best in variety stage performers and is proud to feature this exceptional talent...

President's Corner

Just as I was getting ready to bring my baby out of a long winter slumber, Mother Nature chose to smack me aside of the head! I should have known better. The only people I know that have been able to enjoy their rides this year, are the Tates & the Schrodts. Oh well, that is the fortunes of Wisconsin living.

It soon will be that time for real. Make sure your battery is fully charged, and properly connected (if you do remove it). Check all the fluid levels that you are able to, and check your air pressure (spare too, for some of you). We are all looking forward to getting together with friends, and summer tours. I look forward to seeing all of you at one time or another this year (no you cannot get rid of me that easy!)

Put May 20th on your calendar for the first Rawhide fish fry of the 2011 season. This is also a call for all cars for their annual car show and shine. – Steve Bender
